This timetable ensures that the slate of honourees is finalized in time to notify the recipients and arrange the recognition event.

For your information and assistance, I have enclosed a list of the previous recipients (no individual can be recognized more than once in their lifetime), together with a copy of the Council Policy which details the criteria and process to be followed.

Accessibility Advisory Committee

City of London

Attn.: Jerri-Joanne Bunn

Agenda Item for Review for the July 25 meeting of the Committee.

As a member of the AAC, I am requesting the following to be discussed:

Sidewalk Review:

- A request to City Council to review sidewalk infrastructure maintenance plans both short term and long term. How are long term plans developed to ensure funds are available to fix a crumbling sidewalk network
- Is there a detailed plan to repair sidewalks?
- Address “hot spots”: areas that are in dire need of repair due to the challenges and dangers they present. Examples include
 - Richmond Street, both sides of the street from Queens Ave to York St,
 - Carling Street,
 - The pork chop island at Richmond and Central
 - Richmond (NE corner) at Central
 - King St., south side, between Richmond and Clarence
- How is the priority of sidewalk maintenance determined?
- Who is monitoring construction to ensure adherence to sign and closure bylaws? Too many incidents of sidewalks being closed with zero notice given
- Re-visit sidewalk snow removal

If we are to ensure active transportation for all, it is my belief that this topic must be addressed.

City of London Accessibility Advisory Committee

Orientation for members
July 25, 2019

History

- In 2001 Ontario passed the Ontarians with Disabilities Act (ODA)
- The ODA required all municipalities of 10,000 residents or more to have an Accessibility Advisory Committee with at least half the members being persons with a disability
- Often referred to as AACs (Accessibility Advisory Committees) or MACs (Municipal Advisory Committees), London refers to theirs as ACCAC or AccAC (Accessibility Advisory Committees) as they already used AAC for the Agricultural Advisory Committee

Role

While it is the legislative mandate of the Municipal Council to make the final decision on all matters that affect the Municipality, the role of an advisory committee is to provide recommendations, advice and information to the Municipal Council on those specialized matters which relate to the purpose of the advisory committee, to facilitate public input to City Council on programs and ideas and to assist in enhancing the quality of life of the community, in keeping with the Municipal Council's Strategic Plan principles. Advisory committees shall conduct themselves in keeping with the policies set by the Municipal Council pertaining to advisory committees, and also in keeping with the Council Procedure By-law.

Mandate

The Accessibility Advisory Committee (ACCAC) shall advise and assist "the organizations" in promoting and facilitating a barrier-free London for citizens of all abilities (universal accessibility), including persons with disabilities. This aim shall be achieved through the review of municipal policies, programs and services and the identification, removal and prevention of barriers faced by persons with disabilities.

So what is in and out of scope?

 - One Health Care or Wellness Practitioner
 - One representative from the Newcomer/Multicultural sector
 - One representative from Mental Health Sector

Composition - This Term

*This term: The municipality is currently reviewing all Advisory committee structures, terms, etc. As such they only appointed members at large to positions on advisory committees. ACCAC is slightly different in the Persons with a Disability positions are mandated by the Province (AODA). Although the Parent representative was not officially designated, it was considered in the selection process. Similarly the resource members (tan cards) were not recruited this term. Previous members were carried forward.

Sub-Committees and Working Groups
