What We Heard

During their last meeting the Community Diversity and Inclusion Champions brainstormed ways to address the needs as well as barriers and oppressions faced by specific populations within London.

When looking at all of these perspectives it is key to understand the concept of intersectionality. Intersectionality can be defined as the intersection, or crossover, of our many identities affect how each of us experience the community. These intersections occur within a context of connected systems and structures of power (e.g., laws, policies, state governments, other political and economic unions, religious institutions, and media). (Advancing Equity and Inclusion, A Guide for Municipalities) Due to the intersecting identities and the relationship with structures, many groups and individuals find themselves with little to no influence and ability to make changes to increase their power. They also risk ongoing discrimination, and tend to have fewer resources.

What We Heard

Indigenous, First Nations, Métis and Inuit

There are three communities located in close proximity to London, they are the Chippewas of the Thames First Nation, Munsee Delaware Nation and Oneida Nation of the Thames. Many members of these communities as well as other Indigenous peoples, Métis and Inuit have chosen to make London their home. Champions identified infrastructure, education, changing mindsets, and reconciliation as playing a role in the lives of local Indigenous peoples. A large emphasis was placed on the Truth and Reconciliation Commission – Calls to Action (TRC) and ways in which both the City of London and the community can work together with the local Indigenous peoples to implement the strategies. This included ideas such as:

- Establishing an implementation and accountability plan and creating ways to measure progress;
- Ensuring local Indigenous peoples lead the change within the community;
- Establishing an Indigenous relations office within the City of London; and
- Working with the local Indigenous peoples to create health, homelessness and housing strategies geared to the needs of Indigenous peoples.

Glossary of Terms

The following definitions are provided to assist users with the general understanding of issues related to diversity management. The definitions come from various sources, which are credited following each explanation. Language related to diversity management is complex and frequently undergoes transformation into new words, phrases, terms, concepts, and understandings. (Exert from: Halifax Regional School Board, Diversity Definitions)

These terms were devised in collaboration between community anti-oppression educators, City staff, and City of London's Diversity Inclusion and Anti-Oppression Advisory Committee noting that many terms were adopted from DIAAC's "Diversity Definitions" resource tool. We acknowledge permission of DIAAC to use the tool.

Ableism

Attitudes in society that devalue and limit the potential of persons with disabilities. People with disabilities are assumed to be less worthy of respect and consideration, less able to contribute and take part, and of less value than other people. Ableism can be conscious or unconscious and is embedded in institutions, systems or the broader culture of a society. (Ontario Human Rights Commission)

Accessibility

A general term for the degree of ease that something (e.g., device, service, physical environment and information) can be accessed, used and enjoyed by persons with disabilities. The term implies conscious planning, design and/or effort to make sure something is barrier-free to persons with disabilities. Accessibility also benefits the general population, by making things more usable and practical for everyone, including older people and families with small children. (Ontario Human Rights Commission)

Accessible

Does not have obstacles for people with disabilities – something that can be easily reached or obtained; facility that can be easily entered; information that is easy to access. (Ontario Human Rights Commission)

Accessibility for Ontarians with Disabilities Act (AODA), 2005

The purpose of the AODA is to develop, implement and enforce accessibility standards to remove barriers for Ontarians with disabilities on or before January 1, 2025 in relation to: goods, services, facilities, accommodations, employment and buildings, structures and premises. The AODA came into effect on June 4, 2005. (Ontario Human Rights Commission)

Affirmative Action

Action designed to address the historic disadvantage that identifiable groups (e.g., women, racialized persons) have experienced by increasing their representation in employment and/or higher education. (Ontario Human Rights Commission)

African Canadian

A Canadian of African origin or descent. (Ontario Human Rights Commission)

Afrocentricity

Placing African ideals at the center of any analysis that involves African culture and behaviour. (Asante, Molefi. 1987. The Afrocentric Idea.)

Ageism

Prejudice or discrimination against a particular age-group, especially the elderly. (Ontario Ministry of Children and Youth Services)

Allyship

A process, and everyone has more to learn. Allyship involves a lot of listening. Sometimes, people say "doing ally work" or "acting in solidarity with" to reference the fact that "ally" is not an identity, it is an ongoing and lifelong process that involves a lot of work. (Tri-College Libraries Research Guide, Allyship and Anti-Oppression: A Resource Guide)

Alternative (alternate) Format

A method of communication that takes into account a person's disabilities. Examples include providing a text version of a website, or a large print version of a document for someone with a visual disability. (Ontario Human Rights Commission)

CDIS Recommendations

In September 2020, the CDIS Leadership Table brought a list of recommendations aimed at addressing anti-Black and anti-Indigenous racism in the Corporation of the City of London. These recommendations can be divided into three themes:

1. Recommendations on ongoing City projects;
2. Recommendations on community engagement; and,
3. Recommendations on City staffing.

Civic administration reported on progress and next steps in October 2020.

Priority Six

Following extensive discussion, the CDIS Leadership Table recommended the creation of a new, sixth priority within the CDIS that will focus specifically on addressing anti-Black racism in London.

The Leadership Table confirmed that anti-Indigenous racism is best addressed through the existing Priority 1: Take concrete steps towards healing and reconciliation Working Group.

This priority will be created through an extensive consultation process with community leaders and residents.

The recruitment process for the Steering Committee closed on January 11, and the group has been meeting since February.
