ARAO Division Mandate

Our mandate is to create and sustain action-focused, positive, and lasting systemic change in the City of London so that race or membership in an equity-deserving group does not predict one's access to opportunities or ability to engage whole heartedly in the London community. We will do this through relationship building, research, community engagement, best practices, education, critical self-reflection and shared leadership.

Rumina Morris - Director

Anti-Racism  Anti-Oppression

What We Heard

- The community deserves to have a clear understanding of the relationship between and roles of the Anti-Racism and Anti-Oppression division, the Diversity, Inclusion and Anti-Oppression Community Advisory Committee, Accessibility Community Advisory Committee and themselves.
- There are legitimate limits to the capacity and resources that community volunteers must have in order to move large scale projects forward.
- The responsibility to address systemic racism and oppression must lie with the City and community groups and organizations.
- Many of the recommendations outlined within the CDIS strategies are already being done either by the City or others within the community.
- Creating a more equitable and inclusive community requires a partnership between the City and its residents and their respective priorities and needs.

SurveyMonkey Feedback

- An expressed desire for opportunities to network, learn, and engage moving forward.
- Key Takeaway - Collaboration with community partners and organizations doing similar work, and not duplicating those efforts.
- Continued involvement and opportunities for CDIS Members to be able to stay engaged with the work of ARAO Division and related initiatives
- A need for accountability and transparency in light of CDIS being discontinued / “not let the work be put on a shelf”

Next Steps

- A report will be brought to the Strategic Priorities and Policy Committee outlining the work to date and how it will look moving forward.
- Quarterly Anti-Racism and Anti-Oppression Forums will be scheduled in the upcoming year
- Diversity, Inclusion and Anti-Oppression Community Advisory Committee members will be invited to participate.
