

Good Morning Corrine,

As a local resident, I want to voice my concern and opposition to the homeless hub recently proposed for the Black Pearl. Addressing the homeless concern requires some forethought and dialogue with residents of the area. It does not bode well that the proposed location is near schools, parks and the ravine.

Sincerely
David Waldner