

To whine it may concern!

I live in Fox field and am very worried about the plan to open the Canadian Mental Health Association Thames Valley Addiction and Mental Health Services (women and female-identifying hub). I have many concerns and am hoping that the people in this area will be engaged before a big decision like this is made. Hope to hear from you soon. Thanks,

Meho Burzic