For more than 40 years the London Abused Women's Centre (LAWC) has provided counselling, advocacy, and support to abused, exploited and trafficked women and girls throughout London and Middlesex County. LAWC also provides support and counselling to London and Middlesex County family members of women and girls who have been trafficked, including women and girls who are missing or disappeared. On a wider level as a feminist agency, LAWC works to create a safer environment for women and girls by advocating actively to change the legal, social, and education systems.

The Shine the Light on Woman Abuse campaign is a public awareness campaign of the London Abused Women's Centre which runs Nov.1-30 of each year.

The goals of the Shine the Light on Woman Abuse campaign are:

- 💡 to show abused women and girls that the residents of London and Middlesex County support them in their quest to live a life free from violence and abuse
- 💡 to shift the feelings of blame and shame abused women so often feel, from their shoulders to the shoulders of those who abuse them
- 💡 and to raise the profile of resources in the community that can help support abused women through their journey.

Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Thank you for your time and consideration in this matter,

Gail McVicar (she/her)
