

Greetings,

I fear that making Wonderland Rd a six-lane highway with a ring road would be an expensive project that would not address the need for improved public transit, bike lanes, and walking paths. There must be more efficient and cost-effective ways to improve city traffic than increasing cars on the road. This suggested project would increase fuel emissions, which is counter to supporting a healthy planet.

Please seek more fiscally responsible options

Kind Regards,

Jean Sommerdyk