

Committee: London Housing Advisory Committee

Name: Joan M. Lenardon

Address:

997 Waterloo Street
London, ON
N6A 3X4

Occupation: retired university lecturer

Work experience: Lecturer, Church History: St. Peter's Seminary; Brescia University College

Education: B.A. Political Science; French M.A. History

Skills: Presently, President of Kinwell Place, Non-Profit Corporation. I am most interested in this subject and have learned a great deal from serving on this Board for the last ten years.

Interest reason: London has a good record of engaging the services of volunteers. I wish to continue in this tradition and this area has engaged both my interest and my time for a long time. Good housing means good neighbourhoods. Good housing helps keep people healthy and happy. Good housing, good neighbourhoods makes eminent economic as well as moral sense.

Contributions: A continuation of my service in the non-profit sector.

Past contributions: As above, connection with Kinwell Place Non-Profit Corporation for the last ten years.

Interpersonal: Teaching on the secondary and university level develops the very skills to exchange views with others and to respect the skills, abilities, and knowledge of others. Without this kind of respect and skill, teaching is not successful. I think I have been a successful teacher.

Interview interest: Yes
