PREVIOUS REPORTS PERTINENT TO THIS MATTER

Item #16 - Board of Control – March 24, 2010
 Item #18 – Board of Control – June 9, 2010

BACKGROUND

Section 81 and section 81.2 of Municipal Elections Act, 1996 (MEA), pertaining to compliance audit applications, requires all municipalities and local boards to establish compliance audit committees. An excerpt from sections 81 and 81.1 of the MEA is attached as Appendix "B" to this report.

The following summarizes the requirements as set out in sections 81 and 81.1 of the MEA:

- mandatory appointment by all municipalities;
- minimum of three, maximum of seven members;
- the committee shall not include members of Council, employees or officers of the municipality or any persons who are candidates in the election for which the committee is established;
- appointed by October 1st of election year;
- serves a term concurrent with the term of office of the Council that takes office following the next regular election; and,
- Clerk has specific responsibility for the committee.

The powers and functions of a compliance audit committee are as follows:

- consider a compliance audit application received by an elector and decide whether it should be granted or rejected
- if the application is granted, appoint an auditor to conduct a compliance audit
- receive the auditor's report
- consider the auditor's report and if the report concludes that the candidate appears to have contravened a provision of the MEA relating to election campaign finances, the committee may commence legal proceedings against the candidate for the apparent contravention
- if the report indicates that there was no apparent contravention and the committee finds that there were no reasonable grounds for the application, the council is entitled to recover the auditor's costs from the applicant

The Process

All candidates are required to file provincially-prescribed financial statements with the Clerk detailing their campaign financing activities. An eligible elector who believes, on reasonable grounds, that a candidate has contravened the MEA, relating to campaign finances, may apply for a compliance audit of the candidate's election campaign finances. The application must be made in writing to the City Clerk, include the reasons for the elector's belief that the candidate has contravened the MEA, and must be made within 90 days after the latest of:

- (a) the filing date under section 78 of the MEA;
- (b) the candidate's supplementary filing date, if any, under section 78 of the MEA;
- (c) the filing date for the final financial statement under section 79.1 of the MEA; or
- (d) the date on which the candidate's extension, if any, under subsection 80(4) of the MEA.

The Committee

The proposed terms of reference, attached as Schedule 1 to Appendix "A", provides for a Municipal Election Compliance Audit Committee composed of three (3) members.

It is important that the Municipal Election Compliance Audit Committee members possess an in-depth knowledge of the campaign finance rules of the MEA so that they can make independent decisions on the merits of the applications. As the Committee will operate as a quasi-judicial committee, prior experience on a committee, task force or tribunal would be an asset. A Committee composed of professionals such as auditors, accountants, lawyers, academics and other individuals having a familiarity with municipal election campaign financing rules is recommended.

To avoid possible conflicts of interest, any member appointed to the Municipal Election Compliance Audit Committee must declare that they will not prepare the financial statements of any candidate running for office on City Council for the term for which the Committee is established. Therefore, any member appointed to the Committee would have to agree to this in writing, prior to the appointment being made. Failure to adhere to this requirement shall result in the individual being removed from the Committee.

Appointments to the Committee

Municipal Council, at its meeting of June 14, 2010 appointed Tim Cobban, Andrew Wright and Christene Scrimgeour to the Municipal Elections Compliance Audit Committee established for the 2010 Municipal Election. The Civic Administration is recommending that the same three individuals be appointed to the Municipal Elections Compliance Audit Committee (MECAC) being established for the 2014 Municipal Election.

All three applicants meet the membership criteria identified in the terms of reference for the MECAC, which are as follows:

“The Committee will be composed of three (3) members, with membership drawn from the following stakeholder groups:

- (a) accounting and audit – accountants or auditors with experience in preparing or auditing the financial statements of municipal candidates;*
- (b) academic – college or university professors with expertise in political science or local government administration;*
- (c) legal profession with experience in municipal law, municipal election law or administrative law;*
- (d) professionals who in the course of their duties are required to adhere to codes or standards of their profession which may be enforced by disciplinary tribunals; and*
- (e) other individuals with knowledge of the campaign financing rules of the Municipal Elections Act, 1996.*

Members of Council, employees or officers of the municipality or any persons who are candidates in the election for which the committee is established are not eligible to be appointed to the Committee, pursuant to clause 81.1(2) of the Municipal Elections Act, 1996.

Further, an individual shall be deemed ineligible to be a member of the Committee if they prepare the financial statements of any candidate running for office on City Council during the term for which the Committee has been established.”

All three individuals have expressed interest in being appointed to the MECAC for the 2014 Municipal Election. The applications submitted by the three individuals are attached as Appendix “D” to this report, for the information of Municipal Council.

Financial Impact

The municipality is responsible for any costs resulting from the review of applications submitted to the MECAC. These costs include:

- Committee members’ honorarium, which is being recommended to be $100.00 per member, per meeting
- auditor’s costs to perform an audit
- costs related to the Committee’s operations and activities
- legal costs related to an appeal to the Ontario Court of Justice with respect to a decision of the Committee
- legal costs to undertake legal action against the candidate for violations of the elections finance provisions of the MEA

Factors involved in determining MECAC costs include the number of compliance audit applications that are received, the number of meetings that are required to be held, and the complexity of the audits that need to be conducted. It is therefore difficult to pre-determine the costs that will result from the establishment of the MECAC process, as the number of applications to be submitted are unknown in advance. The Elections Reserve has been identified as the source of finance for the operational expenses of the MECAC.

Penalties

The following penalties are available to the courts upon conviction of violations under the Municipal Elections Act, 1996:

- Individual:
 - maximum fine of $25,000
 - if convicted of a corrupt practice, automatic loss of seat and ineligible to run or be appointed to office
 - the Court has discretion to impose up to six months imprisonment for corrupt practice and for any other offence if the offence was committed knowingly
 - ineligible to be elected or appointed to any office until after the next general election if convicted of a corrupt practice

- Unions and Corporations:
 - maximum fine of $50,000

Conclusion

The City Clerk recommends that the attached proposed by-law (Appendix “A”) BE INTRODUCED at the Municipal Council meeting to be held on February 11, 2014 for the purpose of establishing the Municipal Election Compliance Audit Committee for the 2014 Municipal Election with the source of financing for the operational costs of the Committee being identified as the Elections Reserve.

The City Clerk also recommends that the attached proposed by-law (Appendix “C”) BE INTRODUCED at the Municipal Council meeting to be held on February 11, 2014 to appoint Tim Cobban, Andrew Wright and Christine Scrimgeour to the Municipal Election Compliance Audit Committee being established for the 2014 Municipal Election, in accordance with the Municipal Elections Act, 2006, as amended.
