

Committee: Cycling Advisory Committee

Organization/Sector represented: Member-at-Large

Name: Jason Jordan

Address:

60 Blackfriars St
Apt Front

Occupation: Currently unemployed

Work experience: My work experiences is broad; from doing temp in factories to office clerk jobs, and many between. From my experiences, I learned about the vast amount of industries and culture here in London.

Education: Studied Urban Design at Fanshawe College with an interest in Active Transportation, and been trained at a Can-Bike Instructor.

Skills: I been cycling since I was a child. Lucky, I live in communities that was easy to cycle in. I cycle as a commuter, recreation and for shopping. Recently became a Can-bike Instructor and taught a few courses. Been involved in promoting cycling in London for over 15 years. Attended the past Bicycle Advisory Committee meeting as a general public (not a member). Attending city's public meetings promoting cycling. Been involved as a public, with Smart Moves and ReThink London.

Interest reason: I want to assist to make London, a better city to cycle in. Cycling and Active Transportation in a true passion on mine. There will be need for private automobiles, still that number can be reduced. London is know for it's Health industries, London should be also know to be promoting a healthily lifestyle.

Contributions: I maybe cycle above the average cyclist; I still understand the challenges to the beginners to be able to cycle more. Feel like I can keep to a balance; what could be possible in the future and possible now. Well finding ways to get beginners and non-cyclist, more comfortable with cycling.

Past contributions: Was a Member-at-Large on the Board of Directors of Ontario Trails Council in 1999-2001, working on signage standards and mapping the trails in Ontario.

Interpersonal: I served on many committee, attended many public meeting and other social information exchanging meetings etc. Pints and Politics, Green Drinks, TREA meetings, and others. Just because, I many not agree with some people thoughts; that does not make it wrong. There is many ways to be seeing the world.

Interview interest: Yes
