

Committee: Cycling advisory committee

Organization/Sector represented: at large-citizens

Name: Dr Chris Smart

Address:

36 Forward Avenue
London On N6H 1B7

Occupation: Professor

Work experience: Environmental research (water, earth, ice) Instruction: environment, monitoring technologies, research, Administration: various academic, provincial and national environmental committees

Education: BSc Physical Geography MSc Geography PhD Geography

Skills: 50 years daily commuting by bicycle 30 years daily commuting by bicycle in London ON 30 years all year-all weather commuting Approximately 60,000 km in London Real world experience of trends in cycle commuting

Interest reason: Support growth of year round sustainable transportation (and recreation) Great appreciation for the evolving cycleway system and a desire to support informed development

Contributions: Experience in cycle commuting and personal recreation Awareness and knowledge of basic transportation systems

Past contributions: Currently serving on EEPAC where in 9 months I have lead five major reviews and participated in a many others with respect to water, air and soil conditions

Interpersonal: It been my core profession for 40 years. I enjoy learning and adapting my views from the experience of those I work with.

Interview interest: Yes