

Communities Stopping Fluoridation Since October 25, 2010

- Denotes Canadian communities

December 2011

December 20, 2011 Hartland Township, Michigan (14,800)
December 19, 2011 Moncton, New Brunswick (140,000) **
December 12, 2011 Dieppe, New Brunswick (20,000) **
December 12, 2011 Grantsburg, Wisconsin
November 19, 2011 Lake Cowichan, British Columbia (3,000) **
November 19, 2011 Williams Lake, British Columbia (11,200) **
November 8, 2011 Amesbury, Massachusetts (16,500)
October 31, 2011 Lakeshore, Ontario (33,000) **
October 25, 2011 Palmer, Alaska (8,400)
October 18, 2011 Lawrenceburg, Tennessee (11,000)
October 16, 2011 Churchill, Manitoba (1,000) **
October 13, 2011 New Plymouth, New Zealand (50,000)
October 4, 2011 Pinellas County, Florida (700,000)
October 4, 2011 Welsh, Louisiana
September 30, 2011 Spencer, Indiana/ BPP Water (10,500)
September 22, 2011 College Station, Texas (100,000)
September 12, 2011 Slave Lake, Alberta (7,000) **
September 6, 2011 Hohenwald, Tennessee (4,000)
August 16, 2011 Pottstown, Pennsylvania (15,500)
August 15, 2011 Spring Hill, Tennessee (30,000)
August 8, 2011 Philomath, Oregon (4,500)
July 20, 2011 Taber, Alberta (6,500) **
July 4, 2011 Meadow Lake, Saskatchewan (5,000) **
June 30, 2011 Taumarunui, New Zealand (5,000)
June 6, 2011 Fairbanks, Alaska (30,500)
May 18, 2011 Naples Village, New York (1,070)
May 16, 2011 Mount Clemons, Michigan (17,300)
April 21, 2011 Lago Vista, Texas (6,500)
April 17, 2011 Mechanicsville, Iowa
March 17, 2011 Marcellus, Michigan (1,100)
February 16, 2011 Independence, Virginia (1,000)
February 8, 2011 Calgary, Alberta (1,300,000) **
February 7, 2011 Yellow Springs, Ohio (3,200)
February 7, 2011 Vercheres, Quebec (5,240) **
January 19, 2011 Schuylkill Haven, Pennsylvania (5,500)
November 15, 2010 Sparta, North Carolina (2,000)
November 4, 2010 Tellico, Tennessee (900)
October 25, 2010 Waterloo, St. Jacobs, and Elmira, Ontario (103,000) **

Total: 2,892,500 people voted against fluoridation