

SCHEDULE “A”

CITY OF WINNIPEG WEBSITE

“On-Line Credit Card Payment:

Property Tax Bills only

The City of Winnipeg – Assessment and Taxation Department does not offer the option of paying taxes using a credit card. However, you may be able to use a third-party service provider that offers additional payment methods, including credit cards. The provider that offers the credit card method at this time is listed below for your convenience and the third-party providers charge a fee for their service.

- Plastic

Avoid late fees! Even if you pay today, the Assessment and Taxation Department may not receive your payment today. The transfer will typically take place within three to six days. However, you may encounter additional delays. Please contact the third-party service provider for more information. The Assessment and Taxation Department may charge you penalties or interest or both if your payment is late.

You are responsible for making sure the Assessment and Taxation Department receives your payment by the payment due date. If you are using a third-party service provider, you must clearly understand the terms and conditions of the services you are using. Also, links to other websites, or references on this website to products, services, or publications other than those of the Assessment and Taxation Department are provided only for the convenience of Assessment and Taxation website users. The Assessment and Taxation Department does not endorse these products, services, or publications.”

CANADA REVENUE AGENCY WEBSITE

“The CRA does not offer the option of paying taxes using a credit card. However, you may be able to use a third-party service provider that offers additional payment methods, including credit cards. The only provider that offers the credit card method at this time is listed below for your convenience. Third-party providers charge a fee for their service.

- Plastic (T2 Corporation and T1 Individual)

Avoid late fees! Even if you pay today, the CRA may not receive your payment today. The transfer will typically take place within two to three days. However, you may encounter additional delays. Please contact the third-party service provider for more information. The CRA may charge you penalties or interest or both if your payment is late.

You are responsible for making sure the CRA receives your payment by the payment due date. If you are using a third-party service provider, you must clearly understand the terms and conditions of the services you are using. Also, links to other websites, or references on this website to products, services, or publications other than those of the CRA, are provided only for the convenience of CRA website users. The CRA does not endorse these products, services, or publications.”