

Committee: London Diversity & Race Relations Advisory Committee

Organization/Sector represented:

Name: Doris Hall

Address:

45 Brixham Road
London ON N6K 1P5

Occupation: Office Manager

Work experience: I have worked in Administration most of my life, for law offices, real estate broker, business owner and now in science. For the past eight years, I have managed the office for a drug development company in London.

Education: I have a BA in Administrative Office Management from UWO.

Skills: I have experience in running meetings since I have been involved with the Business and Professional Women's Club (BPW) for over 25 years, holding leadership positions up to the national president. I am familiar with Parliamentary Rules of Order for meetings. As well, I have many years experience in business and administration.

Interest reason: My interest in this committee stems from the Motion that was passed in 2012 by Council to support the Women's Empowerment Principles. I chair that committee for BPW Canada and continue to promote the program to businesses across Canada and in the London community.

Contributions: I have a keen interest in having a community that recognizes and supports diversity and having an equal playing field for all members of society. I believe my voice will add strength to this committee.

Past contributions: I am Past President for BPW Canada. I am the Treasurer for the London Anti-Human Trafficking Committee which I have been involved with for over eight years. I have also been involved in other groups in London to support equality in the workplace.

Interpersonal: As a leader of a national organization, and having represented BPW Canada at international congresses and at the Committee of the Status of Women at the United Nations, I believe that I am capable of exchanging my views with others while respecting the skills, abilities and knowledge of others.

Interview interest: Yes
