

Committee: London Diversity & Race Relations Advisory Committee

Organization/Sector represented: N/A

Name: Eaman Fahmy

Address:

50 Buttermere Rd

N6G4L1

Occupation:

Work experience: former editor for media NGO in Cairo Egypt

Education: B.A. Honours Economics (Queen's University) M.A. International Relations (Boston University) Currently pursuing post-degree diploma in Not-for-Profit Management at Western University

Skills: In my studies I am particularly interested in issues of diversity. Due to my background I have a good understanding of both North American and Middle Eastern cultures. I have strong ties to the Arab and Muslim communities in London and feel I contribute by providing insight and understanding.

Interest reason: I love the City of London and want to make it an even better place to live that is welcoming to all.

Contributions: I believe I can contribute by providing an understanding of Arab and Muslim cultures that enrich the social fabric of the City of London. I hope that by contributing, I would enable more Londoners to become more engaged in our city.

Past contributions: I have worked on projects for Canadians for Justice and Peace in the Middle East (CJPME). We bring speakers on cross-country tours and have held photo and art exhibitions. We held our last art exhibition in 14 different venues across the city.

Interpersonal: Other than CJPME, I have also contributed to various committees in the Muslim community whereby we have brainstormed, exchanged views, and worked together so as to formulate policy, establish programming, and hold special events.

Interview interest: Yes
