

Committee: London Diversity & Race Relations Advisory Committee

Organization/Sector represented:

Name: Zalahadin

Address:

366 hollywood cr

Occupation: student

Work experience: i worked with UN before and actively participating with CCLC, currently involve new immigrants work at LACFO here in london

Education: Fanshawe College, general art and science and currently at UWO as Sociology student.

Skills: leadership skill as i represented refugee in different conference oversea, i am ,also good at planing and find strategic solution as exploring various options

Interest reason: this is my first city since, i arrive here and i benefited so much from this place, so i would like to pay back and gain valuable experience as well.

Contributions: i will contribute specially issues related to new immigrants employment and establishment as this overwhelming when you arrive as new person, but i now have great experiences that willing to share and contribute for better future.

Past contributions: i worked with UNCHR oversea and we established refugee central committee that represent refugee population and address concerns for the real people with real needs, however, i did also developed youth action kit that mainly focus of rehabilitation and restore refugee youth in new environment (camp).

Interpersonal: i am involve with my community here in london and as leader in this community i exchange my experiences with others such as, how to handle challenges and confront risk, while solving the problems

Interview interest: Yes