Subject: Red Light London's Green Bins: An Open Letter to City Council

Good afternoon Mayor Fontana and Council members,

I am writing to share my thoughts on the proposal to introduce a city-run Green Bin program. I understand that discussion of the Green Bin program is on the agenda for Monday's council meeting. I have written an open letter to Council on my blog, which is available here: <http://www.redace.ca/2011/08/red-light-londons-green-bins-open.html>

I hope you will consider my feedback and discuss these points during the meeting. If possible, I would appreciate it if my letter could be attached to the agenda for Monday's meeting.

Kind regards and thank you for your time,
Andrew Culver
