

Betty,

I have accepted a new position that requires me to move out of London. Unfortunately, I understand this means that I can no longer sit as a member of ACCAC since I am not a resident of London. Please accept this email as my resignation from the committee. I am sorry for any inconvenience this has caused and I wish the committee the best of luck.

Thank you,
Maria Mavrikkou