

OFFICIAL PLAN REVIEW

TERMS OF REFERENCE
STRATEGIC PRIORITIES AND POLICY COMMITTEE
JANUARY 30, 2012

OP REVIEW

London
CANADA

the presentation

- > Confirm the need for an Official Plan Review
- > Terms of Reference be adopted
- > Public input be received

op background

- > October 4, 2011 - Draft Terms of Reference (Committee-of-the-Whole)
- > October - January - Public Feedback
- > December 12, 2011 - Information Report
- > December 13, 2011 - Public Open House

public engagement

The background features a stylized illustration of a meeting. Several people are shown in silhouette, sitting at a table. A large, white, 3D-style arrow originates from the bottom left and points towards the center of the slide, passing behind the list of bullet points. The overall color scheme is grayscale with a textured, halftone-like background.

- > Establish working groups that represent a diversity of age, location and culture.
- > Establish working groups based on the various themes from the Official Plan
- > Use engagement programs that target a variety of age groups.

Public Engagement

The Official Plan

changes

- > Changes to the Work Plan and provisions of tasks and timelines.
- > Consideration of specific changes in policy and designations.
- > Flexibility to refine technical studies and add others
- > Refinement of public consultation program to ensure a balance of ages and cultures.

key themes

dialogue

The importance of engaging the Public throughout the process to help define the vision of the City that Londoners desire and wish to achieve.

sustainability

To provide effective ways to integrate and/or protect lands relating to land use, transportation and the environment.

prosperity

To promote a quality of life that attracts innovation, a strong workforce and a diversity of businesses to London.

efficiencies

That the Official Plan ensures efficiencies and reliability in City infrastructure and operations for best value of tax dollars.

vibrancy

To ensure any plan for London provides the opportunity to address matters relating to social quality of life, cultural diversity and safety; while creating a vibrant and dynamic place to be.

next steps

- > Hiring of a public engagement consultant (RFP Underway)
- > Public launch for the OP Review in April
- > Background Studies Underway
  - Population and Employment Forecasts
  - Land Needs Study
  - Industrial Lands Review
  - Interim Servicing Policies
  - Best Practice Review

OP REVIEW

recommendations

- > Confirm the need for an Official Plan Review
- > Terms of Reference be adopted
- > Public input be received

OP REVIEW