DEVELOPMENT AND INNOVATION

Join us for a National Housing Day Forum – November 16, 2015

In partnership, the City of London and Canada Mortgage and Housing Corporation invite you to attend our annual National Housing Day Forum.

Come and hear about the motivation behind the partners and agencies that create housing, provide supports, and improve the lives of people in our community.

Program at a Glance

Join us as we share updates on London's Homeless Prevention and Housing Plan activities.

Hear how the coming year will unfold. Local innovation and collaboration create opportunities and affordable housing in London.

Get inspired by community champions who make London a better place!
