

BMO CENTRE

EXPANSION

Investing in our Community

6 Cuddy Blvd – THEN

295 Rectory Street – NOW

Revitalization of the Area

1950

Aerial view of the industrial site in the 1950s, showing the circular structure and rail tracks.

2011

Summary of Benefits

- Meet ever increasing demand
- ZERO operational cost to tax payers
- Increased property tax
- Central location
- Promotion of active healthy living for all ages
- A social and fitness hub for seniors

$800,000 ASK

- Project Cost - $7,800,000
  - Mortgage $5,000,000
  - LOSC $2,000,000
  - City of London Grant $800,000

Conclusion

- Builds upon a true London success story
- Exemplifies the strength of Community Partnerships : Private, Public & Corporate
- Gives London state of the art long term sports and fitness facility

Your grant will help us move forward with this project. It is a WIN WIN WIN for everyone

THANK YOU – LOSC

