

Committee: Accessibility Advisory Committee

Organization/Sector represented: The Independent Living Centre London and Area

Name: Pamela Quesnel

Address:

433 King Street, Suite 101 London N6B 3P3

Occupation: Executive Director ILCLA

Work experience: Executive Director for a disability resource centre serving people with all different disabilities for 17.5 years. Freelance writer on disability issues Medical lab technologist 17 years with specialty in haematology

Education: post secondary training in medical lab technology, advanced certification in haematology. published author in variety of newspapers and magazines; major life experience with 2 sisters with disabilities; numerous professional management courses

Skills: Living with and around 2 sisters with physical disabilities; working at a resource centre for 17.5 years that serves people with ANY kind of disability

Interest reason: To serve our community. To provide input. To network with members and city staff.

Contributions: To promote accessibility in our community. To make entities more aware of the issues. To help keep London at the forefront of accessibility progression.

Past contributions: Served on the steering committee and board of ILCLA prior to being hired. Serve on the board of Neighbourhood Legal Services Served on the board of Lifespin Partnered with AAC to publish Access Guide London

Interpersonal: As a board member of the above groups, I have exchanged views with others many times. In recent years, my confidence has grown and I am more forthright with my input, without being offensive or argumentative.

Interview interest: Yes