Organization/Sector represented:

Name: Jeffery Lang

Address:

1 Fox Mill Crescent

N6J 2B3

Occupation: President / CEO Exi-Plast Custom Moulding Ltd.

Work experience: Over the past thirty years experience in senior management. Early in my career I held several position within the distribution and logistics industry. From Sales Management to President and CEO. I have been co-founder and partner in 3 successful start ups. I am a partner in a commercial land development company that specializes in brown field remediation. I sit on the boards of 4 private companies one of which is incorporated in the United States. I currently own Exi-Plast Custom Moulding Ltd. a manufacturing company that sells worldwide.

Education: Graduate University of Western Ontario Kings University College

Skills: I have extensive experience on both private and public boards and understand the role and responsibilities of boards. I have experience in negotiating and advising on collective agreements and legal contracts.

Interest reason: I am a fourth generation Londoner with great pride in our City. I have seen the evolution of the airport from a small regional airport to an international facility. The airport is the first impression many visitors to our city experience and I want to be a part of it's continued growth and development.

Contributions: I have extensive business and board experience and I have a clear understanding of the relationship between boards and management. It is critical that boards provide clear strategic direction and advice to management. It is not the role of a board to implement or interfere with operations. My strongest contribution will be strategic support for management and empowering them to operate the corporation while hold them to account for meeting objectives.

Past contributions: I currently sit on the Board of two privately held corporations. A US corporation, and a Canadian corporation. I am chair and co-founder of a Canadian registered charity and not-for-profit that has been in existence for 11 years. I also sit on the Board of a social services board in the City of London. I am past President of the Boys & Girls Club of London. Past President of London Middlesex Alzheimer Foundation. Past Vice President of Ronald McDonald House Charities. Past Board member of the London Business Improvement Area, predecessor of Downtown London.

Interpersonal: My board experience has taught me that effective communication is critical to the success of any organization. I have had the privilege to participate and chair several organizations and boards. I have prepared and presented numerous proposals over the years and have the learned the skills to effectively communicate them effectively. I understand that the views and opinions of others, board and management representatives, may differ from mine however they are necessary to consider if a complete and successful solution is to be obtained. All opinions should be considered and discussed respectfully if a consensus is the objective.

Interview interest: Yes
