

Committee: member of the board of directors of London Hydro

Organization/Sector represented:

Name: Ahmed Farouk Menesy

Address:

3-750 Mitland Street
London, Ontario
N5Y2W3

Occupation: E.I.T. / A.Sc.Tech.

Work experience: 1-Volunteer Assistant Lecturer - Hillsborough Community College , FL - USA (2013-2015): Assisted in lecturing and lab assignment for students. 2-Assistant General Manager for Research and Development - Alexandria National for Manufacturing and Petro-Chemicals (ANRPC) (1994-2013): 2-1) Designed the co-generation, distribution power system and related controls for the company. 2-2) Designed a "Dynamic-Voltage Restorer" to mitigate the company outages due to the system disturbance. 2-3) Designed a linear stepper motor conveyor. 2-4) Maintained and troubleshot the power system for the company.

Education: 1-M.Sc. in Electrical Power Engineering 2-B.Sc. in Electrical Power Engineering 3-High Diploma in control of industrial process 4-Certified electrical Technologist with ASTTBC (association of technologists and technicians of British Columbia) 5-EIT (engineer in training with Association of engineers and Geo-scientists of British Columbia ABEGBC)

Skills: Design and Innovate Interpersonal excellent skills Experienced in dealing with multi-cultural / multi-national environment Passionate to serve the society (previously, board member in Alexandria Metropolitan board for development and tourism promotion)

Interest reason: Fulfill a genuine passion to give for the society, and to see others society members feeling satisfied. This is an ultimate goal; " Success of each society member is a success of my own, with this only, society can prosper "

Contributions: New ideas to give rise for the City of London tourism potential.

Past contributions: Promoted and participated in the efforts of planning an underwater museum in Alexandria, the submerged artifacts were hard to get out of water, so, the idea of building the underwater museum was formed.

Interpersonal: Each open ion counts, even if it is a direct oppose to one's opinion. If my opinion is discussed with other ones opinions, and majority finds another openion other than mine suitable more; then, I accept this with pleasure. The goal is the benefit for the society, regardless whose openion is the winner opinion.

Interview interest: Yes