

Committee: London Diversity and Race Relations Advisory Committee

Organization/Sector represented:

Name: Izabela Bielaska-Hornblower

Address:

Occupation: Material Planner/ Maternity Leave

Work experience: As a material planner, I am responsible for the everyday on-time delivery of material to production. I ensure all levels of management are aware of any critical shortages and I report out on potential problems on a daily basis. As the Young Alumnae Representative I held increasing roles of responsibility geared toward Alumnae involvement and establishing events to foster a community of alumnae.

Education: B.A. Sociology and Philosophy, University of Western Ontario, Brescia University College

Skills: I have the ability to sit on a committee and efficiently provide feedback to ensure best overall results are reached, through team work and own experience. I bring variety to the discussion table.

Interest reason: I would like to give back to the community I am living in. As well as add some new insight to help move this committee toward an accomplishing future.

Contributions: I can contribute by adding my ethical philosophies to discussion. I will add insight into events or gatherings geared toward involving more youth in race relations and diversity.

Past contributions: As part of the Alumnae committee I contributed to ensure involvement of all groups and across all ages. As a note taker for the Friendly City Symposium I listened to the issues pertaining to older citizens and what solutions needed to be implemented. I offered suggestions of how to go about these changes.

Interpersonal: As part of the Brescia Alumnae Association, I am a part of a larger committee of women with all different backgrounds and views. It has been one of the most rewarding and challenging experiences of my life. To be a part of a committee of such strong powerful women is really an honor.

Interview interest: Yes
