Hi Flo,

Here are photos of what Jackie has. There are lots of the specifically LDRRAC branded items (pen flashlight, sticky note pad, magnet). There are 2 London logo pen sets and 5 mugs. I imagine these were intended to give as thank you gifts to guest speakers, whereas the branded items were for community events. I think there's definitely opportunity for change.

Instead of the calendar, the committee may wish to give LDRRIA nominees a simple City logo branded product, which we typically have readily available from our stores office as follows:
