

REVISED Appendix A CDIS | Adjusted Workplan

Note: at the November 15, 2016 Community and Protective Services Committee meeting, the Committee requested a revised workplan which would see the Community Diversity and Inclusion Strategy (CDIS) completed by the end of March 2017, instead of the proposed May 2017 timeframe. The chronology below envisions a final CDIS presented to the Community and Protective Services Committee on March 28, 2017. It would then go to Council on April 4, 2017.

Report to City Council Issue call for volunteers (November 23) Call for volunteers closes (December 16) Select Steering Committee & Champions (by December 23) First Steering Committee meeting – share information from environmental scan and stakeholder conversations; confirm process; prepare for first Champions meeting First Champions meeting – co-develop a draft vision and statement of commitment; provide training for Champions on conducting broader engagement within own networks, gather ideas for the strategy logo Community Engagement Round #1 begins – Champions test vision and statement of commitment with Londoners for input and feedback Community Engagement Round #1 concludes – Champions submit feedback from discussions (January 30) February 2017 Second Steering Committee meeting – review feedback from Champions' conversations in community about vision and statement of commitment; review submitted draft strategies; plan for second Champions meeting Second Champions meeting – review feedback and approve a vision and statement of commitment; review proposed strategies and brainstorm additional strategies Community Engagement Round #2 begins – Champions seek input and feedback on draft list of strategies and the report design (both general and perspective-specific) Community Engagement Round #2 concludes – Champions submit feedback from discussions (February 25) March 2017 Third Steering Committee meeting – review draft report, prepare communications and engagement tools, based on input from Champions meeting – present draft CDIS (including vision, statement of commitment and strategies) for final revisions and endorsement from group; discuss ways to	N
Call for volunteers closes (December 16) Select Steering Committee & Champions (by December 23) First Steering Committee meeting – share information from environmental scan and stakeholder conversations; confirm process; prepare for first Champions meeting First Champions meeting – co-develop a draft vision and statement of commitment; provide training for Champions on conducting broader engagement within own networks, gather ideas for the strategy logo Community Engagement Round #1 begins – Champions test vision and statement of commitment with Londoners for input and feedback Community Engagement Round #1 concludes – Champions submit feedback from discussions (January 30) February 2017 Second Steering Committee meeting – review feedback from Champions' conversations in community about vision and statement of commitment; review submitted draft strategies; plan for second Champions meeting Second Champions meeting – review feedback and approve a vision and statement of commitment; review proposed strategies and brainstorm additional strategies Community Engagement Round #2 begins – Champions seek input and feedback on draft list of strategies and the report design (both general and perspective-specific) Community Engagement Round #2 concludes – Champions submit feedback from discussions (February 25) March 2017 Third Steering Committee meeting – review draft report, prepare communications and engagement tools, based on input from Champions discussion Third Champions meeting – present draft CDIS (including vision, statement of commitment and strategies) for final	November 2016	Report to City Council
Select Steering Committee & Champions (by December 23) January 2017 First Steering Committee meeting – share information from environmental scan and stakeholder conversations; confirm process; prepare for first Champions meeting First Champions meeting – co-develop a draft vision and statement of commitment; provide training for Champions on conducting broader engagement within own networks, gather ideas for the strategy logo Community Engagement Round #1 begins – Champions test vision and statement of commitment with Londoners for input and feedback Community Engagement Round #1 concludes – Champions submit feedback from discussions (January 30) February 2017 Second Steering Committee meeting – review feedback from Champions' conversations in community about vision and statement of commitment; review submitted draft strategies; plan for second Champions meeting Second Champions meeting Second Champions meeting – review feedback and approve a vision and statement of commitment; review proposed strategies and brainstorm additional strategies Community Engagement Round #2 begins – Champions seek input and feedback on draft list of strategies and the report design (both general and perspective-specific) Community Engagement Round #2 concludes – Champions submit feedback from discussions (February 25) March 2017 March 2017 Third Steering Committee meeting – review draft report, prepare communications and engagement tools, based on input from Champions discussion Third Champions meeting – present draft CDIS (including vision, statement of commitment and strategies) for final		Issue call for volunteers (November 23)
First Steering Committee meeting – share information from environmental scan and stakeholder conversations; confirm process; prepare for first Champions meeting First Champions meeting – co-develop a draft vision and statement of commitment; provide training for Champions on conducting broader engagement within own networks, gather ideas for the strategy logo Community Engagement Round #1 begins – Champions test vision and statement of commitment with Londoners for input and feedback Community Engagement Round #1 concludes – Champions submit feedback from discussions (January 30) Second Steering Committee meeting – review feedback from Champions' conversations in community about vision and statement of commitment; review submitted draft strategies; plan for second Champions meeting Second Champions meeting – review feedback and approve a vision and statement of commitment; review proposed strategies and brainstorm additional strategies Community Engagement Round #2 begins – Champions seek input and feedback on draft list of strategies and the report design (both general and perspective-specific) Community Engagement Round #2 concludes – Champions submit feedback from discussions (February 25) March 2017 Third Steering Committee meeting – review draft report, prepare communications and engagement tools, based on input from Champions discussion Third Champions meeting – present draft CDIS (including vision, statement of commitment and strategies) for final	December 2016	Call for volunteers closes (December 16)
environmental scan and stakeholder conversations; confirm process; prepare for first Champions meeting First Champions meeting – co-develop a draft vision and statement of commitment; provide training for Champions on conducting broader engagement within own networks, gather ideas for the strategy logo Community Engagement Round #1 begins – Champions test vision and statement of commitment with Londoners for input and feedback Community Engagement Round #1 concludes – Champions submit feedback from discussions (January 30) February 2017 Second Steering Committee meeting – review feedback from Champions' conversations in community about vision and statement of commitment; review submitted draft strategies; plan for second Champions meeting Second Champions meeting – review feedback and approve a vision and statement of commitment; review proposed strategies and brainstorm additional strategies Community Engagement Round #2 begins – Champions seek input and feedback on draft list of strategies and the report design (both general and perspective-specific) Community Engagement Round #2 concludes – Champions submit feedback from discussions (February 25) Third Steering Committee meeting – review draft report, prepare communications and engagement tools, based on input from Champions discussion Third Champions meeting – present draft CDIS (including vision, statement of commitment and strategies) for final		Select Steering Committee & Champions (by December 23)
Champions' conversations in community about vision and statement of commitment; review submitted draft strategies; plan for second Champions meeting Second Champions meeting – review feedback and approve a vision and statement of commitment; review proposed strategies and brainstorm additional strategies Community Engagement Round #2 begins – Champions seek input and feedback on draft list of strategies and the report design (both general and perspective-specific) Community Engagement Round #2 concludes – Champions submit feedback from discussions (February 25) March 2017 Third Steering Committee meeting – review draft report, prepare communications and engagement tools, based on input from Champions discussion Third Champions meeting – present draft CDIS (including vision, statement of commitment and strategies) for final	January 2017	 environmental scan and stakeholder conversations; confirm process; prepare for first Champions meeting First Champions meeting – co-develop a draft vision and statement of commitment; provide training for Champions on conducting broader engagement within own networks, gather ideas for the strategy logo Community Engagement Round #1 begins – Champions test vision and statement of commitment with Londoners for input and feedback Community Engagement Round #1 concludes – Champions
prepare communications and engagement tools, based on input from Champions discussion Third Champions meeting – present draft CDIS (including vision, statement of commitment and strategies) for final	February 2017	 Second Steering Committee meeting – review feedback from Champions' conversations in community about vision and statement of commitment; review submitted draft strategies; plan for second Champions meeting Second Champions meeting – review feedback and approve a vision and statement of commitment; review proposed strategies and brainstorm additional strategies Community Engagement Round #2 begins – Champions seek input and feedback on draft list of strategies and the report design (both general and perspective-specific) Community Engagement Round #2 concludes – Champions engage Londoners in implementing the CDIS Fourth Steering Committee meeting – review final report. Present CDIS to Community and Protective Services Committee (March 28) 	March 2017	 Third Steering Committee meeting – review draft report, prepare communications and engagement tools, based on input from Champions discussion Third Champions meeting – present draft CDIS (including vision, statement of commitment and strategies) for final revisions and endorsement from group; discuss ways to engage Londoners in implementing the CDIS Fourth Steering Committee meeting – review final report. Present CDIS to Community and Protective Services
April 2017 • Present CDIS to City Council for endorsement (April 4)	April 2017	Present CDIS to City Council for endorsement (April 4)