

Our records indicate that your organization has supported Community Heritage Ontario activities in the past.

Thank you for your support.

Community Heritage Ontario is an incorporated province-wide organization of Municipal Heritage Committees .

Membership is based on the calendar year.

Enclosed please find your Annual Membership Application Renewal Form, along with the latest issue of CHOnews.

Your continued support is greatly appreciated.

Please...

1. Fill out the membership form as completely as possible.
(The address you put on the form should be the official mailing address of your organization, the address to which CHOnews and other material will be sent)
2. Return the completed form along with your cheque to the Scarborough address indicated on the application.
(That's CHO's official mailing address.)
3. Remember to notify us if there are any address changes following municipal elections and/or new MHC appointments.
4. Also attached is a form to complete if your members wish to receive CHO electronically.

Membership in Community Heritage Ontario entitles MHCs to receive six copies of CHOnews published quarterly, to keep members informed of heritage issues across the province. (Additional copies may be ordered, if required @ $ 4.00 each/annually).
Additional electronic copies are available at no extra charge.

Membership in Community Heritage Ontario also enables your provincial organization to work on your behalf to help preserve our heritage, work to update the Ontario Heritage Act, keep you informed of heritage issues and sponsor regional workshops and provincial conferences. Please feel free to write to Community Heritage Ontario at any time with your comments or concerns.
