

Committee: Public Library Board

Organization/Sector represented:

Name: Michelle Boyce

Address:

205 - 587 Talbot St

London

N6A 2T2

Occupation: Executive Director

Work experience: Executive Director and Psychotherapist Alphabet Community Centre President, Diversity Training Live Radio Host, Between the Margins on CHRW Vice President, St. Thomas Elgin United Way Communications Director TVPIC Past Businesses: Romsoft Computers Courtesy Cabs Babybusiness.com Magic Mirror London Ltd.

Education: I hold 5 CIHR grants(Canadian Institute of Health Research) and am academically published expert in my field. I am a published author, radio host and an extremely successful business woman. I am a court recognized expert on Human Rights.

Skills: Management, IT and technology, Mediation, Diversity, Human Rights, Capital planning and Finance, Budgeting, Employee/Volunteer relations, PR and Media relations

Interest reason: The London Public Libraries are the hub of the City of London community. I have worked closely with the Library on many projects and would like to be a larger part of that contribution to the city.

Contributions: I have a large amount of experience in both the business and not for profit sectors. I am an expert at Human Rights and Diversity policy development and implementation. I am also a PR/Media specialist.

Past contributions: My PR/Media have contributed to the positive press of every board I have been on. My business experience around staffing and management contributes to smooth operation of organizations I am a part of. I am a team player that understands the legal role a board plays in an organization. With the United Way I chair the allocations committee allocating 6 figure dollar amounts to agencies.

Interpersonal: I have extensive experience with communications and understand the one vote, one person in a communal voice. Am understand and support every decision boards make regardless of my personal vote on any one motion. It is important to work as a team and appreciate others have opinions that differ and value those.

Interview interest: Yes