

Committee: London Public Library Board

Organization/Sector represented:

Name: Ellen Husk

Address:

826 Lorne Ave
London, ON N5W 3K8

Occupation: Business Information Analyst

Work experience: In my current position I gather and compile research for a large professional service firm to support company research and business intelligence initiatives. I also aggregate various sources of information to compile corporate profiles, executive bios, and comprehensive research for public and private companies. I am also responsible for creating and leading training sessions both in-person and remotely.

Education: I hold a Combined Honors BA in Childhood & Family Relations/History as well as a Masters degree in Library and Information Science.

Skills: - Excellent written and oral communication skills - Analytical and evaluative skills - Natural communicator and leader, with success training staff on various processes, skills, and services - Time management skills and ability to work under tight deadlines

Interest reason: I would like to bring my skills and experience working in a corporate environment to the public library board. I currently volunteer at the LPL and would like the opportunity to contribute in a broader forum. I believe that the public library is of considerable value to the City of London and would like to have the opportunity to contribute to such an institution.

Contributions: I believe that my education, skills, and experience would be an excellent contribution to this body. I would like the opportunity to bring my skills I have garnered from working in a community capacity to a body serving the City of London as a whole.

Past contributions: For the past year I have been the Vice President of the Old East Village Community Association (OEVCA).

Interpersonal: In my capacity on the executive of the Old East Village Community Association, I have listened, respected, and contributed to various topics regarding our neighbourhood and the people who reside there. As well, in my professional life I have worked with various colleagues in all capacities and have respected their skills, abilities and knowledge. I appreciate what I can learn from others.

Interview interest: Yes
