

Whereas the location at 2190 Dundas St (formerly "Famous Flesh Gordons) has be out of operation since 2015,

Whereas the city's current by-law L-6 subsection 5b prohibits adult entertainment and body rub parlours within 100m of residential zoned properties,

And whereas revitalization of the Dundas St commercial corridor with new business development on this and other vacant sites should be consistent with the city's existing by-laws.

We the undersigned call on the members of city council to delete 2190 Dundas St. From schedules D and K, as related to sections 3 and 5 of the City of London's existing L-6 Business Licensing By-law
