

That the Finance and Administration Committee (FAC) passed the following a motion to go in camera from 11:25 a.m. to 12:35 p.m.:

“That the Finance and Administration Committee move in camera to consider the following:

- C-1. A matter pertaining to litigation or potential litigation affecting the municipality, personal matters about an identifiable individual and information whose disclosure could reasonably be expected to prejudice the economic interests of the Corporation or instructions to be applied to any negotiations carried on or to be carried on by or on behalf of the Corporation as it relates to a property damage claim.
- C-2. A matter pertaining to security of the property of the Corporation as it contains commercial and financial information supplied in confidence to the Corporation the disclosure of which could be reasonably expected to prejudice significantly the competitive position or interfere significantly with the contractual or other negotiations of a person, group of persons, or organization, result in similar information no longer being supplied to the Corporation where it is in the public interest that similar information continue to be so supplied and result in undue loss or gain to any person, group, committee or financial institution or agency.
- C-3. A matter pertaining to litigation commenced by Practical Plumbing Co. Ltd as against The Corporation of the City of London for contribution and indemnity for any amount that Practical Plumbing Co. Ltd. is required to pay to Joseph Ronald Norman Coursol and Laurie Elizabeth Coursol in connection with a flooding at 76 Brunswick Avenue in the City of London; advice that is subject to solicitor-client privilege, including communications necessary for that purpose regarding litigation by Practical Plumbing Co. Ltd as against The Corporation of the City of London for contribution and indemnity for any amount that Practical Plumbing Co. Ltd. is required to pay to Joseph Ronald Norman Coursol and Laurie Elizabeth Coursol in connection with a flooding at 76 Brunswick Avenue in the City of London; and for the purpose of giving directions to employees of the municipality.
- C-4. A matter pertaining to proposed or pending acquisition of land by the municipality in connection with the Springbank Drive road widening project and related expropriations; litigation or potential litigation with respect to the expropriation of temporary easement on a property located at 339 Springbank Drive, including matters before administrative tribunals, affecting the municipality or local board; advice that is subject to solicitor-client privilege, including communications necessary for that purpose, in connection with the expropriation of temporary easement on a property located at 339 Springbank Drive; and directions and instructions to officers and employees or agents of the municipality regarding settlement negotiations and conduct of litigation in connection with the expropriation of temporary easement on a property located at 339 Springbank Drive.
- C-5. A matter pertaining to personal matters, including matters involving municipal employees, reports, advice and recommendations of officers and employees of the Corporation concerning labour relations, and litigation or potential litigation, including matters before administrative tribunals, affecting the municipality.
- C-6. A matter pertaining to litigation or potential litigation affecting the municipality and advice that is subject to solicitor-client privilege, including communications necessary for that purpose, in connection with the Motion for Leave to Appeal to the Divisional Court of the interim decision of the Assessment Review Board in Town Inn Suites v. Municipal Property Assessment Corp. Region Nos. 9 and the City of London.
- C-7. A matter pertaining to personal matters, including matters involving municipal employees, reports, advice and recommendations of officers and employees of the Corporation concerning labour relations, and litigation or potential litigation, including matters before administrative tribunals, affecting the municipality.