Requested Zoning By-law Amendment

To change the zoning from a Holding Downtown Special Provision (h-3*DA1(6)*D350) Zone to a Downtown Special Provision Bonus (DA1(6)*D350*B(_)) Zone. Changes to the currently permitted land uses and development regulations are summarized below. The complete Zoning By-law is available at london.ca/planapps.

Current Zoning

Zone: h-3*DA1(6)*D350

Permitted Uses: A full range of commercial, service, and office uses with residential uses permitted above the first floor.

Special Provision(s): Additional Permitted Uses: i) Apartment buildings, senior citizen apartment buildings, apartment hotels, dwelling units and accessory dwelling units may be permitted in the front portion of the groundfloor.

Residential Density: 350 uph

Height: 90 metres

Requested Zoning

Zone: DA1(6)*D350*B(_)

Permitted Uses: Same uses as existing zoning

Special Provision(s): Same special provisions will exist.

Residential Density: 931 uph

Height: 102 metres

Bonus Zone: The bonus zone would permit a residential density of 931uph and maximum height of 102 metres in return for eligible facilities, services and matters outlined in Section 19.4.4 of the Official Plan. Other provisions such setbacks and lot coverage may also be considered through the re-zoning process as part of the bonus zone.

Planning Policies

Any change to the Zoning By-law must conform to the policies of the Official Plan, London's long-range planning document. These lands are currently designated as Downtown in the Official Plan, which permits a broad range of retail; service; office; institutional; entertainment; cultural; high density residential; transportation; recreational; and open space uses as the main uses.

The subject lands are in the Downtown Place Type in The London Plan, permitting a broad range of residential, retail, service, office, cultural, institutional, hospitality, entertainment, recreational and other related uses.

How Can You Participate in the Planning Process?

You have received this Notice because someone has applied to change the zoning of land located within 120 metres of a property you own, or your landlord has posted the notice of application in your building. The City reviews and makes decisions on such planning applications in accordance with the requirements of the Planning Act. If you previously provided written or verbal comments about this application, we have considered your comments as part of our review of the application and in the preparation of the planning report and recommendation to the Planning and Environment Committee. The additional ways you can participate in the City's planning review and decision making process are summarized below. For more detailed information about the public process, go to the Participating in the Planning Process page at london.ca.

Attend This Public Participation Meeting

The Planning and Environment Committee will consider the requested zoning changes at this meeting, which is required by the Planning Act. You will be invited to provide your comments at this public participation meeting. A neighbourhood or community association may exist in your area. If it reflects your views on this application, you may wish to select a representative of the association to speak on your behalf at the public participation meeting. The Planning and Environment Committee will make a recommendation to Council, which will make its decision at a future Council meeting.

What Are Your Legal Rights?

Notification of Council Decision

If you wish to be notified of the decision of the City of London on the proposed zoning by-law amendment, you must make a written request to the City Clerk, 300 Dufferin Ave., P.O. Box 5035, London, ON, N6A 4L9, or at docservices@london.ca. You will also be notified if you speak to the Planning and Environment Committee at the public meeting about this application and leave your name and address with the Secretary of the Committee.

Right to Appeal to the Local Planning Appeal Tribunal

If a person or public body would otherwise have an ability to appeal the decision of the Council of the Corporation of the City of London to the Local Planning Appeal Tribunal but the person or public body does not make oral submissions at a public meeting or make written submissions to the City of London before the by-law is passed, the person or public body is not entitled to appeal the decision.

If a person or public body does not make oral submissions at a public meeting or make written submissions to the City of London before the by-law is passed, the person or public body may not be added as a party to the hearing of an appeal before the Local Planning Appeal Tribunal unless, in the opinion of the Tribunal, there are reasonable grounds to do so.
