

Committee: London Police Service Board

Organization/Sector represented: Downtown

Name: Lisa M. Taylor

Occupation: Medical Secretary

Work experience: I am currently and have been working directly for a surgeon for the past 13years. I work between St. Joseph's Health Centre and LHSC Victoria Campus. Prior to that I was a stay at home Mother. I also worked in Sales and Service at Bell Canada for 13years. I was a civilian Member with the RCMP for 2 years in the early 1990's and did some joint work with the OPP. I have also been on many fundraising and Charity committees as well as Parent Council when my children were young. I am also currently active at St. Peter's Cathedral as a reader and Eucharist Minister.

Education: I completed Grade 13. I have also taken courses of interest over the years King's University College and Fanshawe College.

Skills: I am very organized and a strong communicator. I have also lived in London my entire life. I am well networked and am very interested in being a part of any decision that will aid in making our city a better place to reside.

Interest reason: I am now currently an empty nester. I have extra time and would like to use my skills in knowledge to help make a difference. London has and always will be my home.

Contributions: As stated previously I do have strong organizational and communication skills that I feel may assist on this particular board. I have also been very interested personally with Polices services over the years

Past contributions: My experience working with the RCMP/OPP was a great start for me although years with an interest on the current issues with what Law Enforcement has to deal with.

Interpersonal:

Interview interest: Yes