Committee: London public library board

Organization/Sector represented: Lambeth community association

Name: Cathy melo

Occupation: Retired

Work experience: My husband and I started and owned a large exterior renovation company for 27 years.

Education: I am a graduate of business from Fanshawe collage majoring in accounting. As well as having nine business course from UWO

Skills: I have used the London public library my whole life so I am very familiar as a consumer with the library, I have a strong business background to understand the necessary financial needs of the library. I have expertise on committees and know what to expect on being on committee.

Interest reason: I think the London Public Library has so much more potential than it is currently using I would like to bring new ideas to the table helping to create an ever more vibrant library.

Contributions: Enthusiasm, great ideas but also experience on advisory committees Past contributions: Have been a member of Lambeth community association for 20 years. I have represented LCA on the urban league for 10 years. I was also on the heritage committee for several years.

Interpersonal: Please see the above item concerning past contributions. I am very familiar in appropriate behaviour and the respecting of others.

Interview interest: Yes