

Edwin Olson, PhD

Opportunity

Increase access to healthcare, education, and economic opportunity to underserved areas. Provide cost-effective mobility options to the disabled and elderly.

Congestion

Traffic costs commuters hours each day and slows economic development. Many cities and regions also require more space allocated to parking than human adding 67% to building costs.

Safety

Drivers are at fault in 81% crashes annually in the United States alone

Taking an incremental path

Safety

Technology

Regulatory

Learning

Solving real problems today

Columbus, OH

Providence, RI

Grand Rapids, MI

Detroit, MI