

Unsanctioned & Unsafe Street Parties Policy Amendments

The City of London in partnership with Western University & University Students' Council

Public Safety

City By-laws

- Streets – closing street
- Public Nuisance – nuisance parties
- Yard and Lot Maintenance – debris
- Property Standards – unsafe conditions
- Sound – noise likely to disturb
- Parking – variety of parking violations

Fines

- Interfere with use of street: $150 to $450
- Hosting nuisance party: $750 to $1,000
- Littering street: $175 to $300
- Public Nuisance Fine Max: $10K to $25K
- Part 1 tickets/court summons - operational options

Additional Legislation

- Liquor Licence Act – sale, possession
- Trespass to Property – entry prohibited
- Fire Protection and Prevention Act
- Highway Traffic Act
- Controlled Drugs and Substances Act
- Criminal Code – Unlawful assembly

Nuisance Parties – Cost Recovery

- Every owner / tenant take reasonable actions to:
  - Prevent
  - End
  - Clean-up

Actions

- Security – trespassing
- Unreasonable sound
- Make safe premise, leave roofs
- Reduce crowd size
- Remove debris

Cost Recovery

- Where directed to be done – no action
- City takes action
- Recovers cost by action or property taxes
- Reasonable actions to prevent – no cost recovery

Western Administration

- Code of Student Conduct – Scope and jurisdiction
- Strategies – security, fencing, door to door visits
- Communications on consequences

Western Students' Council

- Second annual PurpleFest – safe alternative
- Analyzing venue change
- Strategic educational messaging

Moving Forward Communications

- "Get Involved London"
- Operational plan – expectations and consequences
- More information will follow.....

Consequences of non-compliance clearly communicated

Questions?

