It is important to recognize that accessibility needs and concerns happen throughout the life-cycle at any age, can happen to anyone of any background and occur for any reason. I hope to also contribute but also foster my advocacy skills through being a part of the Advisory Committee. Persons with disabilities often feel unheard, not validated and misunderstood. Together, we are stronger and we can build and shape a more inclusive city. I hope to learn from others around the table as well as from the diverse experiences of people that live and visit our city. We do better, when working together.
