Experience and Qualifications

If you have experience on a London Advisory Committee, please provide dates and details. (maximum 750 characters, attach an extra sheet if you need more space)

I served on EEPAC from Jan 2015 - present.

What do you hope to contribute or learn as part of an Advisory Committee? (maximum 750 characters, attach an extra sheet if you need more space)

EEPAC requires members with the ability to read and comment on lengthy documents containing a high level of technical detail. I have a PhD in molecular biology/microbiology and work as a technical writer and editor.

Application for Appointment to City of London Advisory Committees

How will you support the work of an Advisory Committee? (maximum 750 characters, attach an extra sheet if you need more space)

I will continue to serve on EEPAC and its subcommittees, analyze documents, provide feedback, and prepare documents as part of EEPAC working groups. I have participated in analysis of Environmental Impact Studies, and helped with the research, writing, and editing of three documents prepared by EEPAC or in collaboration with other City advisory committees.

Please describe additional experience, training, or community involvement that will help you in your role as an Advisory Committee Member. (maximum 750 characters, attach an extra sheet if you need more space)

I have served on the Board of the Thames Region Ecological Association for the past eight years. I have a good grasp of environmental issues globally and in London.

I have served as chair of five different organizations in the past thirty years and volunteered on many others. I have a good understanding of Rules of Order for meetings and using time efficiently.
