

Committee: London Housing Advisory Committee

Organization/Sector represented: Royal Canadian Legion

Name: Brian Harris

Occupation: Business Development Manager

Work experience: 30 plus years in commercial and industrial sales. 35 years as a dedicated volunteer for several organizations.

Education: High School, Private College and some University courses.

Skills: I am actively involved with housing challenges for seniors as well as for homeless veterans. In my efforts to provide that advocacy better, I believe participation on this committee will give me the ability to contribute.

Interest reason: I am a dedicated volunteer and I believe it is time to get even more involved at a municipal level.

Contributions: I actively work with and advocate for homeless and near homeless. I believe I have some understanding in to the needs of those looking for sustainable, affordable and non transitional housing.

Past contributions: I sit on a committee that serves the needs of homeless veterans. The city of London has representatives on this committee. I refer to Jan Richardson and Zane Eastabrook.

Interpersonal: I do have the ability to speak in public, chair meetings with impartiality and know that sometimes some subjects must be conducted in camera. I also know that listening must occur twice as much as speaking. I take clear notes and do my reading and research.

Interview interest: Yes
