If no response is received by the Tenant within the said sixty (60) day period the Landlord shall be conclusively deemed to have granted its consent. A request for consent shall provide reasonable details of the identity of the transferee and, in the case of an assignee of the Lease, evidence of such assignee's competence and experience in operating a solar power facility and credit worthiness.
- (b) As a condition of consent to any assignment, the assignee shall execute an agreement with the Landlord to assume, be bound by, observe and perform all of the terms, covenants and conditions of this Agreement which are required to be performed by the Tenant.

10.2 Notice to the Landlord

Notice to, but no consent of the Landlord, is required to a Transfer:

- (a) to a Tenant's Mortgagee in conjunction with a Tenant's Mortgage;
- (b) to an Affiliate or to a limited partnership of which the Tenant or an Affiliate is the general partner;

10.3 Tenant's Mortgage

- (a) If any default occurs under a Tenant's Mortgage, the Tenant's Mortgagee shall give the Landlord Notice of the default at the same time as it gives such Notice to the Tenant and the Landlord shall have a period of fifteen (15) days (or such longer period as provided in the Notice to the Tenant) within which to remedy the default (or such longer period as may be reasonably required to cure the default provided the Landlord diligently pursues the cure and provided the default is not a monetary default) and, if the default is remedied within the said fifteen (15) days (or such longer periods as hereinbefore provided) the Tenant's Mortgagee shall not, by reason of the default, exercise any right or remedy which it might have as holder of the Tenant's Mortgage which would entitle it to possession of the whole or any part of the Leased Premises. Nothing in this Section 10.3 shall obligate the Landlord to cure any default under the Tenant's Mortgage. The Tenant's Mortgagee shall incur no liability to the Landlord if it fails to notify the Landlord as provided in this Section 10.3 but the Tenant's Mortgagee shall not proceed to obtain possession of the Leased Premises unless and until such Notice is given and the Landlord has had the opportunity to cure the default.
- (b) The Tenant's Mortgage shall not proceed to obtain possession of the Leased Premises unless and until it has appointed a competent and experienced operator to manage the Development. The operator selected by the Tenant's Mortgagee shall be subject to the consent of the Landlord, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed.

10.4 Tenant's Mortgagee's Right to Cure Tenant's Default Under the Lease

The Landlord shall send copies to the Tenant's Mortgagee of all Notices sent to the Tenant at the same time as any such Notice is sent to the Tenant regarding a default of the Tenant that if uncured would entitle the Landlord to terminate the Lease. The Tenant's Mortgagee shall have a period of fifteen (15) days (or such longer period as is provided in the Notice to the Tenant) to cure the default (or such longer period as may be reasonably required to cure the default provided the Tenant's Mortgagee diligently pursues the cure and provided the default is not a monetary default) and, if the default is remedied within such fifteen (15) day period (or such longer period as hereinbefore provided), the Landlord shall not, by reason of the default, exercise any right or remedy which it may have to terminate the Lease or otherwise disturb the Tenant's possession of the Leased Premises. Provided that nothing in Section 10.4 will obligate the Tenant's Mortgagee to cure any default or prejudice its rights to obtain a new lease as otherwise provided in this Lease. The Landlord shall incur no liability to the Tenant's Mortgagee if it fails to notify the Tenant's Mortgagee as provided in this Section 10.4 but the Landlord shall not proceed to terminate the Lease or take possession of the Leased Premises unless and until such Notice is given and the Tenant's Mortgagee has had the opportunity to cure the default.

10.5 Possession/New Lease

A Tenant's Mortgagee upon going into actual possession of the whole or any part of the Leased Premises shall agree with the Landlord to assume and, as long as it remains in possession thereof, to perform each of the covenants of the Tenant under this Lease in the same manner and to the same extent as if originally named in this Lease as the Tenant, provided that the Tenant's Mortgagee shall not by reason thereof be or become liable to remedy any continuing non-monetary default of the Tenant arising prior to the time of the Tenant's Mortgagee's actual possession. The Landlord shall not terminate the Lease by reason only that a default on the part of the Tenant entitling the Landlord to terminate the Lease is not susceptible to cure by the Tenant's Mortgagee, provided that such default does not interfere with the proper operation of a Site. If the Lease is disclaimed or otherwise terminated due to circumstances beyond the Tenant's Mortgagee's control or for a default with is not susceptible to cure by the Tenant's Mortgagee then, so long as the Tenant's Mortgagee has cured all monetary and other defaults under the Lease that are susceptible to cure by it, the Landlord will grant the Tenant's Mortgagee a new lease on the same terms and conditions as the Lease for a term equal to the Term then remaining under the Lease (including remaining renewals or extension, if any).

10.6 Transfer by Tenant's Mortgagee

The Tenant's Mortgagee or a privately or court appointed receiver and/or receiver/manager may dispose of the Lease (or a new lease granted pursuant Section 10.5) to a third party in accordance with Section 10.1. The provisions of Section 10.1 shall apply mutatis mutandis to the consent. Upon the assignee of the Lease (or new lease) executing and delivering its agreement to be bound by the Lease (or the new lease) as if it were the original tenant, the Tenant's Mortgagee shall be released from all obligations under the Lease, without any further formalities.

10.7 Transfers and Encumbrances by the Landlord

The Landlord upon sixty (60) days' Notice to the Tenant, may sell, assign, transfer, mortgage, charge, encumber or otherwise deal with any interest in the Sites or any portion thereof in every case without the consent of the Tenant and without restriction, so long as any such dealing by the Landlord with the Sites or any portion thereof or any interests of the Landlord therein is expressly made subject to the rights of the Tenant in the Lease, the rights of the Tenant's Mortgagees and to any written agreements entered into by the Landlord, Landlord's Mortgagees and/or the Tenant's Mortgagees with the Tenant. At the request of the Tenant or a Tenant's Mortgagee, the Landlord shall use its best efforts to cause any Landlord's Mortgagees to enter into an agreement with the Tenant and any Tenant's Mortgagee to the foregoing effect and to be expressly bound.

10.8 Release of Landlord

So long as Section 10.7 has been complied with in connection with a sale or assignment, to the extent that any purchaser or assignee from the Landlord has become bound by and has covenanted in favour of the Tenant and, if applicable, a Tenant's Mortgagee, to perform the covenants and obligations of the Landlord under the Lease with respect to the lands which are the subject of such sale or assignment:

- (a) subject to Section 10.8(c), the Landlord shall be freed and relieved from all liability upon such covenants and obligations in relation to such lands without further written agreement for the balance of the Term;
- (b) subject to Section 10.8(c), the Tenant shall look to such purchaser or assignee for performance of such obligations under the Lease with respect to the lands and premises that are the subject of the sale or the assignment; and
- (c) provided, however, nothing in Sections 10.8(a) and 10.8(b) shall release the Landlord from any obligation to the Tenant or any Tenant's Mortgagee resulting from any prior default by the Landlord under the Lease or any agreement to which the Landlord and the Tenant and any Tenant's Mortgagee are parties.

10.9 Rights of Tenant's Mortgagees

The Landlord will use its best efforts to obtain from all present and future Landlord's Mortgagees a non-disturbance agreement in favour of the Tenant and any Tenant's Mortgagee of their respective interests in the Leased Premises in form satisfactory to the Tenant or Tenant's Mortgagee, acting reasonably, subject to such changes as the parties may reasonably require. The Landlord will enter into a lease acknowledgement agreement with the Tenant and any Tenant's Mortgagee in form satisfactory to the Tenant or Tenant's Mortgagee, acting reasonably, subject to such changes as the parties may reasonably require. At the request of the Tenant or any Tenant's Mortgagee, the Landlord shall use its best efforts to cause a Landlord's Mortgagee to be made a party to the lease acknowledgement agreement the form of which shall be suitably amended so as to maintain the Tenant's tenure of the Leased Premises and the Tenant's Mortgagee's priority and security position regardless of any dealing with the Landlord's Land by the Landlord or the Landlord's Mortgagee's security. Any rights granted to the Tenant or Tenant's Mortgagee by any agreement referred to or contemplated in the Lease shall be in addition to and in no way limit the rights granted to the Tenant or a Tenant's Mortgagee in the Lease.
