

Hi Shawn

I think that East Lions Park new name should be East Lions Community Centre and not separate the park side from the new building. Even if the name does change the majority of the community will always know it as East Lions.

By the way when do you need the notice of interest for the lighting the Nelson park area for the multi year budget.

Thank for the town hall last night. It was full of great information.

Eleanor de Koning
36 Garland Crescent