Requested Zoning By-law Amendment

Possible change to Zoning By-law Z.-1 FROM a Holding Residential R1 Special Provision (h*h-100*h-173*R1-3) Zone TO a Holding Residential R5/R6 Special Provision (h*h-100*h-173*R5-6(__)/R6-5(__)) Zone; FROM a Holding Residential R1 Special Provision (h*h-100*h-173*R1-3) Zone TO a Holding Residential R4 (h*h-100*h-173*R4-3) Zone. Special provisions for the proposed R5-6(__)/R6-5(_) zone would include rear yard decks to encroach in the yard setback as per section 4.27 (5) but may be closer than the stipulated maximum of 1.2m (3.9 feet) permitted. File: Z-9249/39T-09501. The complete Zoning By-law is available at london.ca/planapps.

Planning Policies

Any change to the Zoning By-law must conform to the policies of the Official Plan, London's long-range planning document. These lands are currently designated as Low Density Residential and Multi-Family, Medium Density Residential in the Official Plan. The Low Density Residential permits single detached, semi-detached, duplex dwellings and multiple-attached dwellings, such as row houses or cluster houses as the main uses. The Multi-Family, Medium Density Residential permits multiple-attached dwellings, such as row houses or cluster houses, low-rise apartment buildings, rooming and boarding houses, emergency care facilities, converted dwellings, and small-scale nursing homes, rest homes and homes for the aged. These areas may also be developed for single-detached, semi-detached and duplex dwellings as the main uses.

The subject lands are in the Neighbourhood Place Type Place Type in The London Plan, permitting a range of uses which includes single detached dwellings up to stacked townhouses, apartments, mixed-used buildings and potential retail and office uses.

How Can You Participate in the Planning Process?

You have received this Notice because someone has applied to change the zoning of land located within 120 metres of a property you own, or your landlord has posted the notice of application in your building. The City reviews and makes decisions on such planning applications in accordance with the requirements of the Planning Act. The ways you can participate in the City's planning review and decision making process are summarized below. For more detailed information about the public process, go to the Participating in the Planning Process page at london.ca.

Please also note that this application is being circulated during the State of Emergency issued by the Province of Ontario. As a result, in-person services are not available at this time.

Reply to this Notice of Application

We are inviting your comments on the requested changes at this time so that we can consider them as we review the application and prepare a report that will include Development Services staff's recommendation to the City's Planning and Environment Committee. Planning considerations usually include such matters as land use, development intensity, and form of development.

Attend a Future Public Participation Meeting

The Planning and Environment Committee will consider the requested Official Plan changes on a date that has not yet been scheduled. The City will send you another notice inviting you to attend this meeting, which is required by the Planning Act. You will also be invited to provide your comments at this public participation meeting. The Planning and Environment Committee will make a recommendation to Council, which will make its decision at a future Council meeting.

What Are Your Legal Rights?

Notification of Council Decision

If you wish to be notified of the decision of the City of London on the proposed zoning by-law amendment, you must make a written request to the City Clerk, 300 Dufferin Ave., P.O. Box 5035, London, ON, N6A 4L9, or at docservices@london.ca. You will also be notified if you speak to the Planning and Environment Committee at the public meeting about this application and leave your name and address with the Secretary of the Committee.

Right to Appeal to the Local Planning Appeal Tribunal

If a person or public body would otherwise have an ability to appeal the decision of the Council of the Corporation of the City of London to the Local Planning Appeal Tribunal but the person or public body does not make oral submissions at a public meeting or make written submissions to the City of London before the by-law is passed, the person or public body is not entitled to appeal the decision.

If a person or public body does not make oral submissions at a public meeting or make written submissions to the City of London before the by-law is passed, the person or public body may not be added as a party to the hearing of an appeal before the Local Planning Appeal Tribunal unless, in the opinion of the Tribunal, there are reasonable grounds to do so.
