

Committee: Transportation Advisory Committee

Organization/Sector represented: At Large

Name: Ted Collins

Address:

101 Normandy Gardens
London, ON N6H 4B1

Occupation: Wealth Advisor

Work experience: Investment Advisor, Small Business Owner, Strategy Consultant, Banker

Education: B.A. Economics, UWO

Skills: Life-long London resident, but worked out-of-town during the workweek for 20+ years, cyclist, driver, one-time land developer, financial analysis and modeling, management, strategic analysis

Interest reason: Contribute to making London a safer and easier place to live. Also, transportation is a major economic enabler, and to contribute to additional prosperity in London would be rewarding.

Contributions: Represent a balanced point-of-view and consider multiple perspectives to assist with generating viable recommendations.

Past contributions: Director, MainStreet London President, London Squash Racquets Club

Interpersonal: Executive committee work at volunteer organizations (above) and many years of attending and chairing meetings as a consultant within a client organization. Both of these situations require a team atmosphere and contributions from every member while driving forward to significant results often with widely divergent opinions expressed during the process.

Interview interest: Yes