Planning Policies

Any change to the Zoning By-law must conform to the policies of the Official Plan, London's long-range planning document. These lands are currently designated as Low Density Residential in the 1989 Official Plan, which permits single-detached, semi-detached and duplex dwellings as the main uses. It also permits consideration of residential intensification up to a maximum density of 75 units per hectare in the form of single detached and semi-detached dwellings, attached dwellings, cluster housing and low rise apartments.

The subject lands are in the Neighbourhoods Place Type on a Neighbourhood Street in The London Plan, permitting single detached, semi-detached, and duplex dwellings, converted dwellings, townhouses, secondary suites, home occupations, and group homes.

How Can You Participate in the Planning Process?

The City reviews and makes decisions on such planning applications in accordance with the requirements of the Planning Act.
