

Committee: Advisory Committee Community Safety and Crime Prevention

Name: Elizabeth Efthymiadis

Address:

717-120 Cherryhill Place
London, ON N6H 4N9

Occupation: retired French teacher

Work experience: school administration, school counsellor, and teaching.

Education: Bachelor of Arts, Master of Arts, and presently registered in Master of Theological Studies at UWO.

Skills: my experience as tenant in London ON and my ability to analyze an issue and provide suggestions for its resolve. My past experience of dealing with both adolescents and mature students also gave me the skills to communicate with people in general and to deal with various situational dynamics.

Interest reason: to bring additional avenues to protection against abuse especially for those who have no voice.

Contributions: As a retiree, I have available time to devote to focus on particular issues of safety and crime prevention. I believe I can bring forth insight into particular issues that confront tenants today and look for ways to resolve them.

Past contributions: this is my first attempt to participate at municipal affairs. Past analogous experience would be participation in a condo owners' association in Europe.

Interpersonal: As mentioned above, my work experience involved communicating with students, young and mostly mature adults. Assessing them, relating to them and in general communicating with them are basic professional abilities required of any teacher. Also my experience in meeting with parents, and my involvement with teachers' workshops as both participant and mentor.

Interview interest: Yes
