

Cycling Advisory Committee Resignation

Hello,

This letter is to inform of my resignation from the Cycling Advisory Committee, effective immediately, as I unfortunately have a conflict with school.

It was a privilege to be involved in the direction of cycling infrastructure in London and to see so many new projects and improvements during my time on the Committee. It was such a pleasure to serve alongside the wonderful members of the CAC.

Thank you,

Olivia Toth