

Re: John Fyfe-Millar Personal Endorsement

As a 30+ year owner of a very active London business, I find myself in attendance at many charitable fund raisers, association meetings and social events. As involved as I try to be, I do not come close to John Fyfe-Millar's involvement with London's social and business structure. I became familiar with John many years ago when he was appointed Treasurer of the Downtown London Association. Since then, I know that he is a key fixture at events and is associated with several local organizations. His passion and involvement for Downtown London is, in my observation, unparalleled. John immerses himself in all things Downtown and I feel he is a perfect candidate as London's representative for our core area.
