

I will be resigning from my position as a member of the current Transportation Advisory Committee effective December 31, 2021.

During more than 4 years on the Committee, I've had the opportunity to be involved and participate in a very broad range of activity that relates to transportation within the City. That participation includes working with a very professional and knowledgeable group of people, encompassing both City staff and the individual members of the Committee throughout my tenure. It's been a terrific experience and one I would willingly promote to any London resident interested in becoming involved in their City.

Regards,
Dan Doroshenko
