Experience and Qualifications

If you have experience on a London Advisory Committee, please provide dates and details. (max. 250 characters): I have not previously served on a London Advisory Committee. I will be joining Huron University College as a Professor in management and organizational studies beginning July 1.

What do you hope to contribute or learn as part of a Community Advisory Committee? (max. 250 characters): Given my extensive knowledge of the range of academic research on animal welfare and wellbeing, I am well-positioned to provide high-level insight to help inform the work of the committee and the City overall. I have studied animal protection policy and practice at local, regional, and national levels since 2015 and published widely in academic and accessible venues on these topics. I have deep roots in the London-Middlesex community and a strong interest in ensuring that the city effectively manages and leads on animal welfare.

How will you support the work of a Community Advisory Committee? (max. 250 characters): By offering my analytical skills, understanding of the community, experience with multi-stakeholder collaboration, and policy expertise to respond to and proactively promote animal welfare in London.

Please describe additional experience, training, or community involvement that will help you in your role as a Community Advisory Committee Member. (max. 250 characters): I serve on the Government of Ontario's Provincial Animal Welfare Services Advisory Table and on the Strategic Planning Committee of Humane Canada's Canadian Violence Link Coalition. I am also a fellow of the Oxford Centre for Animal Ethics. My cv provides further details about my experience and qualifications.

Confirmations

I declare the following: I am at least 18 years old.; I am not a City employee or Council member.; I understand that the commitment may be up to 4 hours per month to attend meetings and prepare.; I understand that my application and any attachments will be included on a public agenda that is published on the City website.

To help inform our outreach activities, please tell us how you heard about this opportunity: (optional): Printed newspaper advertisement
